

Motor Insurance

by Ask Financially

Contents:

- ✓ What is motor insurance?
- ✓ Why you might need motor insurance
- ✓ What are the different types of motor insurance?
- ✓ Motorcycle insurance
- ✓ Understanding how your motor insurance premiums are calculated
- ✓ Shopping around for motor insurance
- ✓ Applying for your motor insurance
- ✓ FAQs
- ✓ Where can I go to get more help

Where can I go to get more help?

The following links may also provide additional help and information:

The Motor Insurers Bureau (MIB) www.mib.org.uk was set up by the government in order to compensate the victims of accidents in circumstances where the person responsible happens to be untraceable or uninsured. Every insurer underwriting compulsory motor insurance is obliged, by virtue of the Road Traffic Act 1988, to be a member of MIB and to contribute to its funding.

Reputable motor insurance providers should be a member of the Financial Services Association, check their register at www.fsa.gov.uk/Pages/register/ to see whether your insurer is registered and regulated by the FSA.

The AA (Automobile Association) provides motoring advice and services including information about motor insurance. Check out their website at www.theaa.com/

The Citizens Advice service also provides help to resolve legal, money and other problems via free, independent and confidential advice, contact the Citizens Advice Bureau at www.citizensadvice.org.uk

The Retail Motor Industry website www.rmif.co.uk offers advice and support for consumers wanting to raise a complaint against a member or find a service relating to the motor industry including, car auctions, servicing, sales and repairs.

Which? is a registered charity and the largest consumer body in the UK, they offer completely independent advice on everything from insuring vehicles to driving abroad at www.which.co.uk/advice/your-car

